

MSC IN AGRIBUSINESS

Lead the future of global agribusiness

Master of Agribusiness (MAB) is a professional degree program that offers internationally competitive business education in partnership between Texas A&M University and the Armenian National Agrarian University. The program combines advanced managerial knowledge with practical industry skills to prepare professionals to lead and innovate the global food and agribusiness sector.

Why choose this program?

- Gain expertise in agribusiness management, finance, marketing, and global supply chains.
- Develop analytical and data-driven decision-making skills.
- Learn from international partners, including Texas A&M University.
- Strengthen leadership, entrepreneurship, and innovation competencies.
- Unlock career opportunities in a fast-growing global sector.

Program highlights

- Internationally developed curriculum.
- Strong industry and academic partnerships.
- Practice-oriented business education.

Program duration: 1.5 years

Teaching language: English.

Format: Full-time, in-person.

Internship: 2-week professional internship with leading Armenian companies

Tuition fee: 1,360,000 AMD/year

Courses include: Managerial Economics in Agribusiness | Financial Accounting | Business Statistics | Marketing and Digital Applications | Business Analytics | Financial Management | Global Food Supply Chains, and more.

Final requirement: Master's thesis & defense.

Diploma: State-recognized degree from the Armenian National Agrarian University (ANAU), accredited by the National Center for Professional Education Quality Assurance (ANQA) and Graduate Certificate from Texas A&M University (USA).

APPLY NOW AND SHAPE THE FUTURE OF AGRIBUSINESS

Admission Information:

Interested candidates will receive comprehensive information about the admission process directly from the University.

(+374) 12 58 58 28

www.anau.am

info@anau.am

Teryan 74, Yerevan